CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii
Table of cases viii
Table of treaties and international instruments x
List of abbreviations xii

1 Introduction 1
1.1 DynCorp private military contractors in Bosnia 2
1.2 Context and scope  6
1.3 Why sex in peace operations? Why regulation? 11
1.4 A feminist regulatory framework 16
1.5 Chapter outline 21

2 Regulating peacekeeping: a feminist framework  24
2.1 Introduction 24
2.2 Peacekeeping 25
2.3 Feminist engagements 33
2.4 Regulatory studies 40
2.5 Conclusion 52

3 Law as regulation: jurisdiction, immunity and international responsibility  54
3.1 Introduction 54
3.2 Jurisdiction 56
3.3 Responsibility of states and international organisations 64
3.4 Immunity 77
3.5 Conclusion 85

4 'Above the law': sex trafficking by private military contractors in Bosnia  88
4.1 Introduction 88
4.2 DynCorp contractors trafficking women into forced prostitution in Bosnia 90