

Contents

Series editor's foreword	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Notes on contributors	xi
 Introduction: de-colonizing Islam and Muslim feminism BIANCA J. SMITH AND MARK WOODWARD	 1
 PART I
Female leadership and Muslim agency	23
 1 Between Sufi and Salafi subjects: female leadership, spiritual power and gender matters in Lombok BIANCA J. SMITH AND SAIPUL HAMDI	 25
 2 Leadership and authority: women leading dayah in Aceh ASNA HUSIN	 49
 3 Gender in contemporary Acehnese dayah : moving beyond docile agency? EKA SRIMULYANI	 66
 PART II
Female spiritual authority in Sufi orders and mystical groups	81
 4 When wahyu comes through women: female spiritual authority and divine revelation in mystical groups and pesantren -Sufi orders BIANCA J. SMITH	 83
 5 Reframing the gendered dimension of Islamic spirituality: silsilah and the 'problem' of female leadership in tarekat ASFA WIDIYANTO	 103

PART III

Muslim feminisms: Islamic and Islamist orientations 117

- 6 Interpreting and enacting Islamic feminism in Pesantren
Al-Muayyad Windan 119
SAIPUL HAMDI

- 7 Women's negotiation of status and space in a Muslim fundamentalist movement 135
INAYAH ROHMANIYAH

PART IV

Sexuality, shari'ah and power 155

- 8 The tawdry tale of 'Syech' Puji and Luftiana: child marriage and polygamy on the boundary of the pesantren world 157
MARK WOODWARD AND INAYAH ROHMANIYAH

- 9 Constructing sexuality in a panopticon pesantren 175
MUSTAGHFIROH RAHAYU

Glossary 187

Index 190