Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 3
John A. Hall and Ove Korsgaard

PART ONE THEORETICAL GROUNDWORK

1 Nation Building and State Building 29
Francis Fukuyama

2 Icons of Nationalism 51
Anthony D. Smith

3 Between Tradition and Modernity: Grundtvig and Cultural Nationalism 79
Michael Böss

PART TWO ENABLING CONDITIONS

4 Religious Revivalism in Sweden and Denmark 95
Hanne Sanders

5 The Nation as Event: The Dissolution of the Oldenburg Monarchy and Grundtvig’s Nationalism 110
Uffe Østergård

6 Why Denmark Did Not Become Switzerland 134
Jason O. Jensen and John A. Hall
PART THREE GRUNDTVIG AND THE PEOPLE

7 "Hand of King and Voice of People": Grundtvig on Democracy and the Responsibility of the Self 151
  Tine Damsholt

8 On the Church, the State, and the School: Grundtvig as Enlightenment Philosopher and Social Thinker 169
  Uffe Jonas

9 How Grundtvig Became a Nation Builder 192
  Ove Korsgaard

PART FOUR COMPARISON

10 Fichte and Grundtvig as Educators of the People 213
  Per Øhrgaard

11 Come Together: Thoughts and Theories on Social Cohesion in the Work of Nikolai Grundtvig and Émile Durkheim 232
  Katrine Baunvig

12 "The Gordian Knot": Grundtvig and British Liberalism 254
  Ole Vind

13 Grundtvig and the Slavic Awakening in East Central Europe: (Con)textual Parallels, Mutual Perceptions 267
  Peter Bugge

14 Crisis of Religion and Nineteenth-Century Spiritual Reform: Varieties of Nation Building in Grundtvig and Emerson 284
  Troels Nørager

15 Community and Individuality: Grundtvigian and Kierkegaardian Protestantism in Denmark 300
  Matias Mol Dalsgaard

PART FIVE TRANSMISSION

16 Grundtvig's Idea of a People's High School and Its Historical Influence 315
  Ove Korsgaard

17 Grundtvigianism as Practice and Experience 331
  Andrew Buckser
18 The Popular Voicing of Sport: Comparative Aspects of Grundtvigian Movement Culture 346
Henning Eichberg

19 Windmills, Butter, and Bacon: The Circulation of Scientific Knowledge among Grundtvigians in the Decades around 1900 362
Hans Henrik Hjermitslev

20 An Ongoing Influence: The Political Application of Grundtvig’s Ideas in the Debate on Danish Society, 2001–09 381
Esben Lunde Larsen

21 The Economic Consequences of the Size of Nations: Denmark in Comparative Perspective 396
John L. Campbell and John A. Hall

Conclusion 412
Ove K. Pedersen

Contributors 427

Index 431