

CONTENTS

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	vi
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	vii
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	ix
INTRODUCTION	1
i. Imagining a “Eugenic Fortress”: Fascist Who and Eugenic What?	8
ii. Exclusions	17
iii. Unpacking the Past	20
CHAPTER I. LOCATING AND DEFINING THE TRANSYLVANIAN SAXON EUGENIC DISCOURSE	29
i. Heinrich Siegmund and the Origins of Saxon Eugenics	29
ii. Saxon Racial Anthropology between Berlin and Vienna	44
iii. The “Child Enthusiast” Alfred Csallner	51
iv. Fritz Fabritius’s Self-Help, from “Building Society” to Rebuilding Society	70
v. Wilhelm Schunn’s National Neighborhoods and Honorary Gifts	78
CHAPTER II. ASSESSING THE DYSGENIC CRISIS: KEY CONCEPTS AND THESES IN ALFRED CSALLNER’S DEFINITION OF SAXON DEGENERATION	85
i. The Lost Children: Family Planning and the Demographic Collapse	86
ii. The Quality Question: The Nation’s Hereditarily “Best” under Threat of Extinction	92
iii. Emigration: The Loss of Saxon Hereditary Substance	102
iv. Mixed Marriages: The End of Racial Distinctiveness	103
v. Lebensraum: Of “Foreign Invaders,” Saxon Employers, and Society’s Scourges, Alcohol and Tobacco	112

CHAPTER III. ALFRED CSALLNER IN SEARCH OF EUGENIC

SOLUTIONS AND INSTITUTIONAL MEANS	121
i. Eugenic Missionaries: Visions of Priests Old and New	122
ii. Csallner's Population Policy Proposals and the Church	126
iii. Going It Alone: The Society of Child Enthusiasts, 1927-30	138
iv. The Self-Help Race Office, 1932-35	143
v. The Reinvention of the Race Office as National Department for Statistics, Population Policy, and Genealogy, 1935-38	145
vi. The National Office for Statistics and Genealogy and Its Six Departments, 1938-41	149

CHAPTER IV. FASCIST VISIONS OF A EUGENIC FORTRESS:

THE SELF-HELP'S ORIGINS AND RISE TO POWER, 1922-33	165
i. Fritz Fabritius and the Origins of Saxon Fascism	166
ii. Early Development, 1922-29	172
iii. Expansion and Radicalization, 1929-32	179
iv. The NSDR Victorious, 1932-33	193

CHAPTER V. SAXON FASCISM IN POWER, 1933-40

i. The Self-Help's Various Forms and Formats, 1933-34	204
ii. War and Peace: The National Community of Germans in Romania, 1935-40	208
iii. The Mighty Pen: The 1935 National Program of Germans in Romania	210
iv. Building a Bristling Eugenic Fortress, One Neighborhood at a Time: Wilhelm's Schunn's National Neighborhoods, 1933-40	215

CHAPTER VI. 1940 AND EVERYTHING AFTER

CONCLUSIONS	255
BIBLIOGRAPHY	259
INDEX OF NAMES	277
INDEX OF PLACES	279