

CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-------|
| List of figures | x |
| List of tables | xii |
| Preface | xiii |
| Acknowledgements | xvii |
| Publisher's acknowledgements | xviii |
| 1 Representing geopolitics | 1 |
| Traditional geopolitics: the United States and the representation of global political space post-September 11 th | 3 |
| Viewpoint 1 – the end of history v. the clash of civilizations | 6 |
| Viewpoint 2 – pax Americana: the United States and empire | 10 |
| Viewpoint 3 – power and persuasion: Europe v. the United States | 13 |
| Viewpoint 4 – globalization and the 'ozone hole': the Core and the Non-Integrating Gap | 18 |
| 2 The nature of geopolitics and globalization | 25 |
| Theories and geopolitics | 26 |
| Traditional and critical geopolitics | 28 |
| Critical geopolitics and geopolitical economy | 33 |
| Realism and the 'Westphalian model' of world politics | 34 |
| Liberalism and the 'UN charter model' of world politics | 39 |
| Geopolitics and globalization of world politics? | 42 |
| 3 Global apartheid and North-South relations | 50 |
| The 'Third World' and the Cold War | 53 |
| The end of the Third World? | 60 |
| US-Latin American relations, debt burdens and the ending of the Cold War | 64 |
| Southern views on development, world politics and the debt crisis | 67 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| 4 Popular geopolitics | 72 |
| Popular geopolitics and the mass media | 74 |
| Films and geopolitical visions | 77 |
| News media and the 'CNN factor' | 85 |
| The Reader's Digest and the Cold War | 90 |
| Cartoons and the anti-geopolitical eye | 92 |
| Geopolitics and music | 96 |
| 5 Globalization of danger | 103 |
| Geopolitics and weapons of mass destruction | 104 |
| Global politics, nuclear weapons and the nuclear weapons cycle | 105 |
| Post-1945 nuclear proliferation control | 110 |
| Resisting nuclearization: regional initiatives and nuclear criticism | 113 |
| Nuclear nationalism in the 1990s: India and Pakistan | 117 |
| US, WMD and 'nuclear outlaws' in the post-September 11 th era | 120 |
| 6 Globalization of environmental issues | 124 |
| From Stockholm to Rio: transboundary and global agendas | 127 |
| Rio Summit and global ecology | 132 |
| North-South relations and the protection of the global commons | 135 |
| 7 Globalization of humanitarianism | 145 |
| Geographical selectivity: to intervene or not to intervene? | 147 |
| Conceptualizing human rights: the problem of definition and implementation | 148 |
| Enforcing human rights by states: national and regional variations | 151 |
| Non-state enforcement of human rights | 153 |
| Can human rights ever be universal? | 156 |
| Humanitarian intervention in the post-Cold War era | 159 |
| Humanitarian intervention: for and against | 161 |
| Contemporary humanitarian intervention: enduring tensions | 163 |
| Case study: the United Nations and Yugoslavia (1992-5) | 165 |
| Geographies of intervention and non-intervention | 168 |
| 8 Anti-geopolitics and globalization of dissent | 172 |
| Colonial anti-geopolitics | 174 |
| Frantz Fanon and anti-colonialism | 176 |
| Edward Said and the imaginative power of Orientalism | 178 |
| Decolonization and the Cold War: the disappointment of independence? | 180 |

| | |
|--|---------|
| Cold War dissent and anti-geopolitics | 183 |
| Resisting Cold War communism | 184 |
| Globalization of dissent | 186 |
| Resisting globalization | 188 |
| Anti-globalization protest | 191 |
| Sleepless in Seattle: the 1990 WTO meeting | 192 |
| 9 Globalization of terror | 198 |
| Why do terror networks challenge traditional geopolitics? | 199 |
| Defining terrorism | 199 |
| Modern terror movements | 199 |
| Terrorism and the Cold War | 202 |
| Types of terror | 203 |
| Did terror operations achieve their stated political objectives? | 206 |
| Al-Qaeda and the geographies of terror and anti-terror | 208 |
| Why did the United States become the main adversary of Al-Qaeda in the 1990s? | 209 |
| Al-Qaeda: a revolutionary vanguard? | 210 |
| The emerging geographies of counter-terror | 212 |
| New geographies of terror? | 214 |
| Responding to Al-Qaeda and the 'axis of evil': the Bush doctrine and regime change | 215 |
| The axis of evil and the 2002 State of the Union address | 216 |
| Geopolitical divisions: the role of Saudi Arabia | 219 |
| Responding to terror: the powerlessness of the United Nations? | 220 |
| Anti-geopolitics and the war against Iraq? | 221 |
| Why do labels such as 'axis of evil' matter? | 222 |
| 10 Conclusions | 226 |
| Glossary | 229 |
| References and further reading | 236 |
| Index | 251 |