

CONTENTS

List of boxes, figures and tables	xi
About the contributors	xiv
Acknowledgments	xvii
List of abbreviations	xviii
1 SECURITY STUDIES: AN INTRODUCTION	1	4 GAME THEORY	48
Paul D. Williams		Frank C. Zagare
What is security studies? A very short overview		Introduction
Defining a field of inquiry: Four fundamental questions		Primitive concepts
What is security?		Strategic-form games and Nash equilibria
Whose security?		Extensive-form games, backwards induction and subgame perfect equilibria
What is a security issue?		Applications of game theory in security studies
How can security be achieved?		Coda
How to use this book
Part 1 Theoretical Approaches	13	5 CONSTRUCTIVISMS	63
2 REALISMS	15	Matt McDonald
Colin Elman and Michael Jensen		Introduction: Constructivism and security
Introduction		Constructivism: Central tenets and shared assumptions
Classical realism		Security as social construction: identity and norms
Neorealism: Waltz's Theory of International Politics		Negotiation and contestation
Defensive structural realism		Agents, structures and change
Offensive structural realism		The Copenhagen School and securitization
Rise and fall realism		Conclusion
Neoclassical realism
Realisms and the rise of China		6 PEACE STUDIES	77
Conclusion		Peter Lawler
3 LIBERALISMS	32	Introduction: What is peace studies?
Cornelia Navari		Peace Studies: A brief history
Introduction		Peace research as science
Traditional or Kantian liberalism		From peace research to peace studies
Douce commerce		Key concepts
The democratic peace thesis		Positive and negative peace
Neoliberal institutionalism		Structural violence
Conclusion		Cultural violence
		The future of peace studies?

7	CRITICAL THEORY	90	Three logics
	Pinar Bilgin		The security dilemma in the Introduction: the need for a		twenty-first century critical perspective		Towards a new agenda for security
	Rethinking security		studies
	Critical theory
	Theory/practice
	The 'Aberystwyth School' of critical security studies
	Emancipation
	Conclusion
8	FEMINISMS	107	11 POLARITY	155
	Sandra Whitworth		Barry Buzan
	Introduction		The debates about polarity
	Feminist approaches in		Polarity during the Cold War
	international security		Polarity after the Cold War
	Women, gender and security:		The problem with polarity
	The impacts of armed conflict		The future of polarity
	Women, gender and security:		Conclusion: The utility of polarity
	Action and activism
	Women, gender and security:
	Talking and making weapons and war
	Conclusions
9	INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL		12 CULTURE	170
	SOCIOLOGY	120	Michael N. Barnett
	Didier Bigo		Introduction
	Introduction		States behaving badly
	Interdisciplinarity, relations and		Culture practices		Cultures in security
	An international political sociology		Strategic culture of security		Peacekeeping cultures
	Episteme		Conclusion
	Methods
	Major findings
	Conclusion
			13 WAR	187
			Paul D. Williams
			Introduction
			Three philosophies of war
			The functions of war
			Trends in armed conflicts since 1945
			Who fights? Who dies?
			Is the nature of warfare changing?
			The idea of total war
			The 'new wars' debate
			The contemporary Western way of war
			Conclusion
Part 2	Key Concepts	135
10	UNCERTAINTY	137	14 COERCION	206
	Ken Booth and Nicholas J. Wheeler		Lawrence Freedman and
	Introduction		Srinath Raghavan
	The house of uncertainty		Introduction
	The quintessential dilemma		Strategy

Deterrence and compellence
Designing coercive strategies
Punishment and denial
Types of costs
Multiple audiences
Reputations
Long-term impact
Conclusion
15 TERRORISM	221	18 ETHNIC CONFLICT	264
Paul Rogers		Stuart J. Kaufman
Introduction		Introduction
Terrorism in perspective		What is ethnic conflict?
Definitions		An overview of ethnic conflicts
State and sub-state terror		Causes of violent ethnic conflict
Responding to terrorism		Sudan
The 9/11 response and the war on terror		Yugoslavia
Trends in terrorism		International security dimensions of ethnic conflicts
Conclusion		Resolution of ethnic civil wars
16 INTELLIGENCE	235	19 HUMAN SECURITY	279
Richard J. Aldrich		Fen Osler Hampson
Introduction		Introduction
What is intelligence?		Understanding the scope of human security
Warning, surprise and 'failure'		Setting the boundaries of human security
Intelligence, uncertainty and stability		Ongoing debates and unresolved issues
Covert action, disruption and event-shaping		Human security and 'failed' states
Intelligence cooperation		The dilemmas of humanitarian intervention
Security and global surveillance		Human security risk assessment
Conclusion		Governance and human security
17 GENOCIDE AND CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY	250	Towards a theory of human security
Adam Jones		Conclusion
Introduction		20 POVERTY	295
Genocide		Caroline Thomas with Paul D. Williams
Challenges of intervention		Introduction
Understanding crimes against humanity		Is poverty an appropriate concern for security studies?
Conclusion		Whose poverty? Whose security?
		What do we know about the poverty-security nexus?
		What do we know about the poverty- violent conflict nexus?
		Effect of poverty on conflict
		Effect of conflict on poverty
		The diplomatic agenda on poverty and security
		Conclusion

28	PRIVATE SECURITY	425	The role of military force in counterinsurgency
	Deborah D. Avant		Learning on the ground
	Introduction		Counterinsurgency in the media age
	Private security and the control of force		Similarities to post-conflict peacebuilding
	A transnational market for military and security services		Conclusion
	The current market compared
	Why the current market?
	Conclusion
	Part 4 Contemporary Challenges	439
29	THE INTERNATIONAL ARMS TRADE	441	32 THE RESPONSIBILITY TO PROTECT 486
	William D. Hartung		Alex J. Bellamy
	Introduction		Introduction
	Three channels for arms transfers		Sovereignty and responsibility
	Arms sales take off: The 1970s and 1980s		R2P and international politics
	Post-Cold War dynamics		R2P in action
	Post-9/11 arms exports		Kenya
	The trade in small arms and light weapons		Libya
	Dangers of dual use: The A.Q. Khan network		Conclusion
	Prospects for restraint
	Conclusion
30	COUNTERTERRORISM	457	33 TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIME 503
	Paul R. Pillar		Phil Williams
	Introduction		Introduction
	Basic elements		Organized crime as a security threat
	Defence		What is transnational organized crime?
	Going on the offensive		Globalization, governance and the rise of organized crime
	Law enforcement and military force		Transnational criminal organizations
	Issues and choices		Illicit markets
			Responses to transnational crime
31	COUNTERINSURGENCY	471	34 POPULATION MOVEMENTS 520
	Joanna Spear		Sita Bali
	Introduction: The current discourse on counterinsurgency		Introduction
	The state of the field		Population movements as a security issue
	The problem that counterinsurgency responds to – insurgency		Population movements categorized
	‘Hearts and minds’		Population movements and violent conflict
			Population movements and foreign policy
			Population movement and internal security
			Conclusion

