

Contents

---

List of figures	ix
List of tables	xi
List of contributors	xiii
Editors' note and acknowledgements	xv

Introduction: China's security perspective Lowell Dittmer	1
---	---

PART I

Chinese national security 19

1 The historical legacy of Chinese security policy Yuan-kang Wang	21
2 Marxist ideology, revolutionary legacy and their impact on China's security policy Maochun Yu	34
3 Economics and security in China Marc Lanteigne	49
4 China's non-traditional security Patricia Thornton	64

PART II

Geostrategic perspectives 79

Section A: The great powers 80

5 China and the United States: common and contested interests Christopher Twomey	81
6 Russia and Chinese security Yu-Shan Wu	90

7	Security dimensions of China's relations with Japan June Teufel Dreyer	104
8	China as "offshore balancer" and South Asia's regional security complex Enze Han and Lawrence Saez	123
Section B: Regional security		137
9	Courting the LDCs: how partnerships with post-colonial governments became a top CCP security interest Edward Friedman	138
10	China's security and the Arctic Linda Jakobson	155
11	Security dimensions of China's relations with the Korean Peninsula Jinwook Choi	167
12	Taiwan and Chinese security Jean-Pierre Cabestan	181
Section C: Collective security		200
13	The United Nations in Chinese security Liselotte Odgaard	201
14	The paper partnership: security in Sino-European relations Jonathan Holslag	217
15	Central Asia and China's security policy Niklas Swanström	229
16	China's securitization of the South China Sea dispute Daniel Lynch	241
PART III
China's security forces		255
Section A: The PLA Army		256
17	The PLA Army Dennis J. Blasko	257

18	The Chinese Air Force and Chinese security Kenneth Allen and Jana Allen	275
19	China's "fortress fleet" comes of age James R. Holmes	306
20	The Second Artillery and nuclear forces in 2014 Richard D. Fisher, Jr.	321
	Section B: China's evolving space capabilities	333
21	China's evolving space capabilities: implications for US interests Mark Stokes and Ian Easton	334
	Section C: China's security in the information age	354
22	China's security in the information age Greg Austin	355
	Index	371