Contents

List of Illustrations		page viii
Αι	sknowledgments	x
Note on Translations and Acronyms		xiv
	Introduction: Taking the Democratic Dimensions of Anti-Nuclear Activism	I
I	"Today the Fish, Tomorrow Us": The Threatened Upper Rhine and the Grassroots Origins of West European Environmentalism	19
2	A Different Watch on the Rhine: How Anti-Nuclear Activing Imagined the Alemannic Community and United a Region Resistance
3	Onto the Site and into Significance? The Wyhl Occupation Its Contexts, from Strasbourg to Kaiseraugst and Const to Kiel
4	"Wyhl and Then What?" Between Grassroots Activism and Mass Protest	129
5	Political Questions, Grassroots Answers: Shaping an Environmental Approach to Electoral Politics	164
6	Organizing a "Decisive Battle Against Nuclear Power Plants": Europe and the Nationalization of Green Politics in West Germany	200
	Conclusion: Protesting Nuclear Energy, Greening Democ
		· ·
	Bibliography
Index		268