Contents

Contributors vii
Acknowledgements x

Introduction: Resources for political reconciliation 1
C. K. MARTIN CHUNG AND ANNika FRIEBERG

PART I
Reconciliation resources and obstacles 13

1 South Africa’s reconciliation process: Tools, resources and obstacles in the journey to deal with its atrocious past 15
JEREMY SARKIN

2 Amity symbolism as a resource for conflict resolution: The case of Franco-German relations 29
MATHIAS DELORI

3 Forget and forgive?: Central European memory cultures, models of reconciliation and Polish-German relations 41
ANNIKA FRIEBERG

4 Apology and confession: Comparing Sino-Japanese and German-Jewish intellectual resources for reconciliation 54
C. K. MARTIN CHUNG

5 Ruist traditions of revenge and alternative resources for Ruist-inspired reconciliation 69
LAUREN F. PFISTER
Contents

6 Repentance as a post-philosophical stance: Tanabe Hajime and the road to reconciliation
DERMOTT J. WALSH

PART II
Regional experience and comparison

7 Reconciliation theories and the East Asian peace
ALAN HUNTER

8 Challenges of teaching international reconciliation in Japan and Korea: A comparative perspective
SEUNGHOON EMILIA HEO

9 Altered states of consciousness: Identity politics and prospects for Taiwan-Hong Kong-mainland reconciliation
EDWARD VICKERS

10 Wrestling with the past: Reconciliation, apology and settling history in Australia and New Zealand
GISELLE BYRNES

11 Comparing Polish-German and Polish-Russian reconciliation efforts
STANISŁAW BIELEŃ AND KRZYSZTOF ŚLIWIŃSKI

12 France and Algeria: Conflict, cooperation and conciliation
PHILLIP C. NAYLOR

Index
