
Table of Contents

Preface	VII
Abstract	IX
Table of Contents.....	XI
1. General Introduction to the Thesis.....	1
1.1. Background.....	1
1.1.1. Ethiopia and the Federal Experience: Brief Introduction..	1
1.1.2. The Discourse on Umpiring Federalism: General.....	3
1.1.3. Other Models vis-à-vis the Ethiopian Way	5
1.2. Relevant Facts.....	8
1.3. Central Issues for Discussion.....	11
1.4. The Role of Comparative Approach.....	12
1.5. Sources of Information, Methodology, and Scope	16
1.6. Justification and Significance of the Study.....	18
1.7. Expected Results and Organization	19
2. Umpiring Federalism: A Descriptive Analysis	21
2.1. Introduction	21
2.2. Etymology and Definition	22
2.3. Historical Overview of Umpiring Institutions	25
2.4. Why Umpiring Federalism? Explaining the raison d'être	31
2.5. Who Can Umpire? The Debate on Institutional Choice	34
2.6. A Review of Procedural Aspects and Characteristics of a “Good Arbiter”	41
2.7. Umpiring Federalism: A Political or Legal matter?	46
2.8. Conclusion.....	50
3. Umpiring Federalism in USA, Germany, and Switzerland.....	53
3.1. Introduction	53
3.2. Some Common Features.....	54
3.2.1. Disinterested and Neutral Umpire.....	54
3.2.2. Safeguarding Constitutional Values.....	59
3.2.3. Core Procedural and Organizational Features.....	62
3.3. The United States Supreme Court	65
3.3.1. Laying the Foundation: Marbury v. Madison	67
3.3.2. Post-Marbury and the Umpiring Role of the Court.....	69
3.3.3. Relevant Doctrinal Principles	75
3.4. The Federal Constitutional Court of Germany	78
3.4.1. Why a Separate Constitutional Court?.....	79
3.4.2. Concentrated Court with A Hybrid Role	80
3.4.3. The Constitutional Court and Federalism	83

3.4.4. Abstract Review and the Court's "Politico-Federal" Role	86
3.4.5. Umpiring Federalism outside the Constitutional Court	87
3.5. Umpiring Federalism in Switzerland	88
3.5.1. Cantonal Autonomy as a Constitutional Foundation	89
3.5.2. A Supreme Court Lacking the Power of Judicialization of Federal Laws.....	90
3.5.3. Umpiring through Legislative Referendum	95
3.5.4. Intergovernmental Relation: Conventional Forum of Umpiring?	98
3.6. Conclusion	100
4. Ethiopia's Federalism: Issues and Contexts	103
4.1. Introduction	103
4.2. Salient Features of Federalism in Ethiopia	104
4.2.1. Ethnicity as the Basis of the Federal Structure	104
4.2.2. Self-Rule as Constitutional Sacrosanct	107
4.2.3. Constitutional Right to Secession: Symbolic or Sincere?..	109
4.2.4. Marrying Unicameralism with Federalism	112
4.2.5. No "Supremacy" or "Preemption" of Federal Laws?	114
4.2.6. The Second Chamber as the Guardian of the Federation..	116
4.3. Constitutional Division of Competencies	117
4.3.1. General Introduction	117
4.3.2. Attribution of Powers under the FDRE Constitution: An Inventory	119
4.4. Conclusion	127
5. Federalism Dispute Resolution in Ethiopia: A Descriptive and Normative Discourse	129
5.1. Introduction	129
5.2. Constitutional Adjudication in Ethiopia: In Passing.....	130
5.2.1. The Meaning and Scope of Constitutional Adjudication..	131
5.2.2. Is the power of the HoF Exclusive?	137
5.3. Federalism Umpiring in Ethiopia	141
5.3.1. Introductory Remarks	142
5.3.2. The Foundations of Nonjudicial Umpiring	145
5.3.3. The Composition and Selection of Members.....	149
5.3.4. Initiation, Parties, and Procedures.....	158
5.3.5. Expected Outcomes and Post-Filing Procedures	165
5.3.6. Miscellaneous Issues.....	167
5.3.7. An Appraisal of the Jurisprudence of the HoF and the CCI	169
5.3.8. Semiformal Mechanisms of Umpiring.....	187
5.4. Conclusion	191

6. The Ethiopian Approach: A Unique Means to a Legitimate End..	195
6.1. Introduction	195
6.2. Making Sense of the Ethiopian Choice.....	196
6.2.1. Reinforcing the Supremacy of Ethnic Groups and Ethno-Cultural Justice.....	197
6.2.2. The HoF as Structural Safeguard of the Federation.....	200
6.2.3. The HoF as a Politically Legitimate Umpire	204
6.2.4. Judicial Distrust and Incompetency	206
6.2.5. A Leap Forward to resolve the Counter-Majoritarian Dilemma.....	209
6.2.6. Federalism is Judicially Underenforced.....	212
6.2.7. Fiscal Federalism and the Role of the HoF	216
6.2.8. A Dominant Multiethnic Coalition Governing Party	217
6.3. The Case Against the Ethiopian Choice	220
6.4. Conclusion.....	225
7. Conclusions and Lessons	229
7.1. The Main Arguments.....	229
7.2. Findings and Overall Conclusions.....	230
7.2.1. A Non-judicial Umpiring is Normatively Defensible and Politically Effective.....	230
7.2.2. Federalism Disputes in Multiethnic Setting and the Prospect of the Ethiopian Choice.....	235
7.3. General Recommendations.....	244
7.3.1. Constitutional Dialogue: the Way Forward?.....	250
7.3.2. The Role of IGR in Rectifying the Ethiopian Choice	252
7.3.3. Specific Recommendations.....	254
List of Abbreviations	257
Bibliography.....	259
Cases	267
Laws	269
Other Documents.....	269
Interviews.....	270
Acknowledgments.....	271