CONTENTS

1 Introduction
   Kehbuma Langmia

Part I Afrocentric Communication Theories

2 The Classical African Concept of Maat and Human Communication
   Molefi Kete Asante

3 Cognitive Hiatus and the White Validation Syndrome: An Afrocentric Analysis
   Ama Mazama

Part II Africana Communication Theories

4 The Igbo Communication Style: Conceptualizing Ethnic Communication Theory
   Uchenna Onuzulike
5  Kuelekea Nadharia Ujamaa Mawasiliano: Toward a Familyhood Communication Theory
   Abdul Karim Bangura

6  Afro-Cultural Mulatto Communication Theory
   Kehbuma Langmia

7  Venerative Speech Theory and African Communalism: A Geo-Cultural Perspective
   Bala A. Musa

8  Africana Symbolic Contextualism Theory
   Faith Nguru and Agnes Lucy Lando

9  The HaramBuntu-Government-Diaspora Relationship Management Theory
   Stella-Monica N. Mpande

10  Dynamism: Ndigbo and Communication in Post-modernism
    Chuka Onwumechili

11  Consciencist Communication Theory: Expanding the Epistemology on Nkrumahism
    Abdul Karim Bangura

Part III  African American Communication Theories

12  Afrocentricity of the Whole: Bringing Women and LGBTQIA Voices in from the Theoretical Margins
    Natalie Hopkinson and Taryn K. Myers

13  New Frames: A Pastiche of Theoretical Approaches to Examine African American and Diasporic Communication
    Gracie Lawson-Borders
Part IV Latin America & Caribbean Communication Theories 255

14 Creolized Media Theory: An Examination of Local Cable Television in Jamaica as Hybrid Upstarts 257
Nickesia S. Gordon

15 Caribbean Communication: Social Mediation Through the Caribbean ICT Virtual Community (CIVIC) 277
Roger Caruth

16 Color Privileges, Humor, and Dialogues: Theorizing How People of African Descent in Brazil Communicatively Manage Stigmatization and Racial Discrimination 301
Juliana Maria (da Silva) Trammel

Index 339