

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	x
Acknowledgments	xii
1 Contested status: contemporary challenges to political elites and elite responses	1
LARS VOGEL, RONALD GEBAUER, AND AXEL SALHEISER
PART I
Elite autonomy and security in modern democracies	23
2 Elite autonomy and post-industrial problems of employment	25
JOHN HIGLEY
3 On the (lack of) autonomy of political elites as representatives	33
JEAN-PASCAL DALOZ
4 Economic elites – political elites: scenes from a symbiosis	44
HEINRICH BEST
5 European citizens and elites in times of economic crisis and citizen unrest	58
URSULA HOFFMANN-LANGE AND MINDAUGAS KUKLYS

PART II

(Changing) elite structure

85

- 6 Degradable elites? Modes and factors of parliamentary turnover in Europe in the early twenty-first century

87

LUCA VERZICHELLI

- 7 When political elites select political elites: insights into the accumulation of autonomous political capital

108

DANIEL GAXIE

- 8 Careers of long-standing legislators and the making of the parliamentary elite: evidence from 25 Baltic parliaments

124

MINDAUGAS KUKLYS

- 9 Recruitment of technocrats in Romanian cabinets

140

LAURENȚIU ȘTEFAN

- 10 Farewell to the party elites? Politically inexperienced ministers in Central and Eastern European cabinets

160

ELENA SEMENOVA

PART III

(Changing) elite attitudes and behavior

183

- 11 Irresponsible elites in opposition and government: the Hungarian case

185

GABRIELLA ILONSZKI AND GYÖRGY LENGYEL

- 12 Theorists of their own practice: democracy as seen by Weimar politicians

203

JENS BORCHERT

- 13 Immigration and its consequences for European integration: a multi-level analysis of European national representatives' perceptions

226

RONALD GEBAUER AND LARS VOGEL

Index

242