

CONTENTS

1	The Void and the Mark	1
	Bibliography	7
2	A Poetic Dialectic: The Place Is Void	9
2.1	Master, Place, and Truth	13
2.2	A Throw of the Dice	15
2.3	The Ode of Labid	18
2.4	The Subject of the Void	21
	Bibliography	24
3	Contaminated Intentions: Tradition and the Individual Talent	25
3.1	Building the Ideal Order	30
3.2	A Ruined Bicycle	34
3.3	The Poet and the Critic	37
	Bibliography	41
4	Badiou, Stevens, Drawing	43
4.1	Dis-placed from the Place	46
4.2	"...on Wallace Stevens"	48
4.3	"Drawing..."	56
	Bibliography	62

5	The Natural Void	63
5.1	The Larger Nature	68
5.2	Truth as Distance, Difference, Void	69
5.3	Dissolving the Void: Grammar	71
5.4	The Thing Is All That It Does	75
5.5	From Void to Nature	77
	Bibliography	82
6	On the Other Side of Mastery	83
	Bibliography	86
	Index	87