Contents

Part I  About This Study

1  Orientation, Overview, and Omissions
   Building on Earlier Narrative Histories
   Why the Pale of Settlement and the Jews Who Left It?
   The Present Study Follows a Tradition of Research on Order and Disorder in History
   Reason Analysis Is Relevant to the Present Research Challenge
   A Reminder That the World at Large Was on the Move: The Pale Was Not Entirely Different
   Introducing the Pale of Settlement: A Brief Overview
   Yes, There Were Many Different Kinds of Jews and Jewish Human Geographies
   Voices Missing in the History of the Pale

Part II  Three Geographies of the Pale of Settlement

2  The Physical Geography of the Pale
   Soils
   Lithuania
   Poland
   Ukraine
vi CONTENTS

Climate and Growing Season 38
Terrain, Topography, Drainage, and River Systems 38
  Lithuania 38
  Poland 39
  Ukraine 39

3 The Human Geography of the Pale 47
  The Russian Census of 1897, Spitzer’s Source for Non-rural Jews 48
  Population Trends 52
  Where Jews Lived 52
    The Rural-Urban Divide 52
    Inter-Gubernia Differences in Their Jewish Populations 53
  Jews Lived in Individual Settlements 60
  Retrospect 69

4 Individual Settlements Are Members of Larger Settlement Systems 71
  Maps of Individual Settlements Within the Pale of Settlement 73
  Research on Settlement Systems 74
  Jews Were Major Networkers 77
  Jewish Networkers 84
  Expanding Physical Networks 87
  Religious Networks 90

Part III Order and Disorder in Everyday Lives

5 Ordered Life in Individual Shtetlach, Towns and Cities 95
  This Chapter’s Challenge 95
  The Urban Design of Individual Settlements 98
  The Micro-Human Geography of Family Space Within Individual Residences 108
  Religious and Other Influences on the Social Cohesion of Individual Settlements 117
  Some Divisive and Destructive Forces Within the Pale and Its Jewish Communities 130
  A Critical Overview of Earlier Syntheses of the Human Geographies of Settled Life in the Pale 137
  Closing Observations 147
CONTENTS

Part IV Tracking Responses to Disorder

8 Nineteenth-Century Disorder in the Pale and Elsewhere

- Major Natural Disasters: Famines and Epidemics 197
- Man-Made Destruction: Wars and Rebellions 199
- The Economic and Spatial Transformation of the Pale 202
- Jews and the Pale During Russian Nation-Building 210
- The Changing World of Ideas 213

Part V New Histories

9 A Research Agenda for New Historians

- Reason Analysis 234
- What Propinquity Meant in Everyday Lives 239
CONTENTS

Spatial Distance and Emigration Costs Were Shrunk by Infrastructure Improvements 242
How Networks Influenced Emigration Patterns and Rates 245
New Evidence Invites New Research Topics 253

Bibliography of Works Cited 263

Index 279