

CONTENTS

List of maps	4
Preface	21
1 Introduction	26
2 The Foundations of Medieval London: From Norman to Plantagenet and beyond; from Romanesque to Gothic	30
3 Early-Tudor London: From royal neglect to a capital fit for a king	100
4 Elizabethan London: The merchant developers take over	130
5 Early-Stuart London: Inigo Jones and the emergence of the Renaissance	155
6 Later-Stuart London: Wren and the rebuilding of the capital	193
7 London during the Early-Hanoverians; The ascendancy of the Palladian and Neo-Classical styles	280
8 Late-Georgian London: From the elegance of Robert Adam to the exuberance of Regency	351
9 Early and Middle-Victorian London: The formation of a megalopolis and the agglomeration of styles	448
Index	506