

Contents

Acknowledgments • vii

Introduction

Global Political Muslim Youth

Tahir Abbas and Sadek Hamid • 1

1. Black American Muslim Youth

Navigating Environments, Engaging New Pathways

Sameera Ahmed and Hadiyah Muhammad • 23

2. Faith and Activism

Canadian Muslim Student Associations as Campus-Based Social Movements and Counterpublics

Jasmin Zine and Asma Bala • 52

3. “No, I’m Not a Salafist”

Salafism, Secularism, and Securitization in the Netherlands

Martijn de Koning • 75

4. The Construction of a Multifaceted British Islamic Identity

Third-Generation British-Born Bangladeshis from East London

Aminul Hoque • 99

5. Scouts in Rough Terrain

Collective Strategies of Muslim Youth in Switzerland for Coping with Exclusion

Andreas Tunger-Zanetti and Jürgen Endres • 125

6. Challenging Hegemony

Voices of Dissent from the Islamic Left in Turkey

Yusuf Sarfati • 149

7. The Pashtun Woman Blogger

Marginality, Empowerment, and the Struggle for Recognition

Shehnaz Haqqani • 173

8. Changing the Tune?

Pakistani Music, Politics, and Social Reform

Chloe Gill-Khan • 195

9. Contribution of the Critical Thinking Forum

in the Deradicalization of Pakistani Youth

A Case Study

Munazza Yaqoob • 213

10. Kashmir's Children of War

Religion, Politics, and Nonviolent Mobilization

Idrisa Pandit • 231

11. Renewal, Reactualization, and Reformation

The Trajectory of Muslim Youth Activism in Indonesia

Carool Kersten • 259

Conclusion

Further Thoughts and the Challenges Ahead

Tahir Abbas and Sadek Hamid • 282

Contributors • 299

Index • 305