
Contents

Series Foreword		ix
Chapter 1	Overview of the #MeToo Movement	1
Chapter 2	Landmark Events	9
	Title VII of the Civil Rights Act Prohibits Sex Discrimination (1964)	9
	Sexual Harassment Enters the Lexicon (1975)	13
	The EEOC Issues Guidelines on Sexual Harassment (1980)	17
	The U.S. Supreme Court Recognizes Sexual Harassment (1986)	21
	The Clarence Thomas–Anita Hill Hearings (1991)	25
	The Tailhook Convention Scandal (1991)	28
	Employers Gain the Faragher–Ellerth Defense (1998)	34
	Vance v. Ball State Narrows Employer Liability (2013)	37
	The Presidential Campaign and Election of Donald Trump (2016)	41
	The Women’s March on Washington (2017)	46
	The Harvey Weinstein Scandal (2017)	50
	Alyssa Milano’s #MeToo Tweet (2017)	53
	Time Magazine Recognizes the “Silence Breakers” (2017)	57
	Dr. Larry Nassar Is Convicted of Sexually Abusing Athletes (2018)	59
	Launch of the Time’s Up Movement (2018)	64

Chapter 3	Impacts of the #MeToo Movement	69
	#MeToo in Entertainment and the Arts	69
	#MeToo in American Politics	76
	#MeToo and the News Media	80
	Businesses Adapt to the #MeToo Era	83
	The Global Reach of #MeToo	87
	Dating and Relationships in a #MeToo World	91
	Assessing Men's Apologies for Past Harassment	96
 Chapter 4	 Profiles	 101
	Sarah Ballard (1984–)	101
	Astronomer who raised awareness of sexual harassment in academia
	Tarana Burke (1973–)	104
	Civil rights activist and founder of the #MeToo movement
	Terry Crews (1968–)	106
	First male actor to come forward with a Hollywood #MeToo story
	Rachael Denhollander (1985–)	108
	First accuser to come forward in the Larry Nassar sexual abuse case
	Moira Donegan (1990?–)	111
	Creator of the “Media Men List” warning women of alleged sexual harassers
	Susan Fowler (1991?–)	113
	Software engineer who blew the whistle on sexual harassment in the tech industry
	Anita Hill (1956–)	116
	Law professor who accused Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas of sexual harassment
	Adama Iwu (1977?–)	119
	Lobbyist who exposed pervasive sexual harassment in California politics
	Ashley Judd (1968–)	121
	Actress and activist whose accusations launched the Weinstein scandal
	Rose McGowan (1973–)	124
	Women's rights advocate and vocal opponent of sexism in the entertainment industry	