

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| List of figures | vii |
| List of contributors | xii |
| Acknowledgements | xvii |
| List of abbreviations and acronyms | xviii |
| | |
| Introduction | 1 |
| 1 The production and use of neocolonialist sites of memory Daniel E. Coslett | 3 |
| | |
| Part I | |
| Colonial spaces in postcolonial metropolises | 21 |
| 2 Old colonial sites and new uses in contemporary Paris Robert Aldrich | 23 |
| 3 The Axum Obelisk: Shifting concepts of colonialism and empire in Fascist and 21st-century Rome Flavia Marcello and Aidan Carter | 42 |
| 4 Postcolonial Berlin: Reckoning with traces of German colonialism Valentina Rozas-Krause | 65 |
| | |
| Part II | |
| Between postcolonial metropolises and postcolonies | 85 |
| 5 Erasing the Ketchaoua Mosque: Catholicism, assimilation, and civic identity in France and Algeria Ralph Ghoche | 87 |
| 6 All empire is a stage: Italian colonial exhibitions in continuum Stephanie Malia Hom | 106 |

| | | |
|-----------------|--|------------|
| 7 | The legacy of colonial architecture in South Korea: The Government-General Building of Chosŏn revisited Suzie Kim | 124 |
| Part III | | |
| | Inherited colonial-era spaces in contemporary postcolonies | 145 |
| 8 | Spatial governmentality and everyday hospital life in colonial and postcolonial DR Congo Simon De Nys-Ketels, Johan Lagae, Kristien Geenen, Luce Beeckmans, and Trésor Lumfuankenda Bungiena | 147 |
| 9 | Colonial mimicry and nationalist memory in the postcolonial prisons of India Mira Rai Waits | 168 |
| Part IV | | |
| | Globalization and heritage in contemporary postcolonies | 189 |
| 10 | Heritage, tourism, and the challenges of postcolonial globalization at Tunis' Bardo Museum Daniel E. Coslett | 191 |
| 11 | The riad's resurgence: Questioning the historical legacy and neocolonial currency of the Moroccan courtyard house Nancy Demerdash-Fatemi | 217 |
| 12 | Cultivating (post)colonialism: Architecture, landscape, and the politics of the Taiwan Sugar Corporation Justin Kollar | 236 |
| | Epilogue | 257 |
| 13 | Working through the neocolonialist habit Vikramāditya Prakāsh | 259 |
| | Index | 269 |