

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Business History in Chile in the Twentieth Century	1
	Manuel Llorca-Jaña, Rory M. Miller and Diego Barría
2	Entrepreneurial Families, Inheritances and Wealth Transfers: The Edwards Family and Their Transition from Entrepreneurs to Rentiers, 1880–1914	33
	Ricardo Nazer Ahumada
3	Baburizza: A Business Group in Chile in the First Half of the Twentieth Century	67
	Gonzalo Islas Rojas
4	Managed Decline, Headlong Retreat or Entrepreneurial Failure? British Nitrate Producers and the Withdrawal from Chile, 1920–1930	97
	Robert Greenhill
5	Riding on a Roller-Coaster: The Rise and Decline of the Anglo South American Bank	139
	Rory M. Miller

6	Economic Policy and Foreign Capital in the Creation and Rise of Copec Marcelo Bucheli	169
7	Chile's Business Network in 1939: Between the Global Crisis and Adaptation to State-Led Industrialization Policies Erica Salvaj, Andrea Lluch and Constanza Gómez	185
8	Electricity Generation and Electric Power in Chile Before 1975 César Yáñez	217
9	On the Origins of the '(Neo)liberal Project' in Chile: Entrepreneurs in the 1950s Luis Ortega	247
10	Chilean Multinationals: Contexts, Paths and Strategies María Inés Barbero	283
	Index	327