

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: In Pursuit of the Neo-Noir	1
	The Critical Profile Built—And Its Shortcomings	6
	Why Is It Noir and How Is It New?	14
	The Aims and Outline of This Investigation	30
	Works Cited	39
2	Crime, Corruption and Social Critique: A Thematic Overview of Noir	43
	What Counts as a Counter Cinema?	44
	Common Themes and Tropes	53
	New Developments and Departures	70
	Works Cited	82
3	Conflict and Crisis: Masculinity and Noir	83
	The ‘Crisis’ Argument Reconsidered	84
	Performativity and Reclaimed Machismo	94
	Reluctant Avengers and the Rejection of Violence	109
	Works Cited	113
4	Fear and Fantasy: Women in Noir	115
	The Femme Fatale: A Figure of Antipathy or Potential Identification?	116
	Avengers, Assassins, Amnesiacs and Outlaws	124

Heroic Helpers and Dogged Detectives	136
Works Cited	146
5 Noir by Any Other Name?: Generic Confusion and Diffusion	149
Nothing New: A History of Hybridity	150
In League with the Devil or Doing God's Work?: Some Big Questions in Horror-Noir	154
Misused Power and Manufactured Realities: SF-Noir	159
Works Cited	180
6 A Lighter Shade of Noir: Differing Uses of Comedy	183
A Sign of Exhausted Ideas or Renewed Inventiveness?	184
Mordant Mirth and Cruel Comedy	187
From Fear to Absurdity: Outlandish Extremes and Parodic Twists	195
Works Cited	209
7 Fatalism vs Free Will: Nihilism and Noir	211
The Labyrinth and Existential Malaise	212
Altruism Versus Egotism—Noir's Competing Impulses	225
The True Proof of a 'Counter Cinema': Lighting the Darkness	230
Works Cited	234
Filmography	237
Index	249