

Table of Contents

List of Figures ix

Acknowledgments xi

Series Editors' Preface xiii

Ethnography, Ecology, and Applied Anthropology:
Implications for Medical Anthropology

Andrew Strathern & Pamela J. Stewart

- 1 Introduction 3
  - The Author's Introduction 4
  - An Engaged Anthropology 6
  - John W. Bennett's Introduction 8
  - John M. Bennett's Introduction 11
  - James P. Bennett's Introduction 14
  - Chapter Outline 17
  - John W. Bennett's Timeline 19
- 2 Family and Cultural Diversity in Milwaukee 21
  - Bennett's Family and Milwaukee's Diversity 21
  - An Educated Family 28
  - Milwaukee Public Museum 30
  - Early Schooling 34
- 3 Expeditions as Education 39
  - Beloit College and Logan Museum 40
  - Archaeology Program at Beloit 44
  - Rainbow Bridge-Monument Valley Expedition 49
  - Life at Beloit 56
  - Between College and Graduate School 57

4	Academic Life and Mentors at the University of Chicago	59
	Radcliffe-Brown's Lecture	60
	University of Chicago Mentors	64
	The University Neighborhood	70
5	Social and Political Life in Chicago	73
	Anthropology Parties	73
	Political Environment	77
	Wartime Ethics and Applied Anthropology	82
6	Applying Anthropology	89
	Working with Margaret Mead	90
	The Kincaid Archaeological Site	92
	A Community Study	96
	Ecological Anthropology	101
7	Wartime Intelligence	107
	Meeting Kathryn Goldsmith	108
	The Bennett Wedding	111
	Pearl Harbor Day	113
	Domestic Intelligence Work	115
	Move to Columbus	119
8	An Applied Anthropologist	125
	Mid-Century Trends in Anthropology	125
	Bennett's Influence on Applied Anthropology	127
9	Mentorship and Colleagues	133
	Iwao Ishino and Leo A. Despres	134
	Robert L. Canfield on Bennett	137
	William S. Cole on Bennett	141
	List of Major Works by John W. Bennett	149
	Works Cited	151
	Index	159