

Contents

| | |
|----------------------|----|
| Acknowledgments..... | ix |
| Preface..... | xi |

PART I: CONTEXT

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. Introduction: Why Classical Social Theory?..... | 3 |
| 2. Modernity and Social Theory | 23 |
| 3. European Enlightenment and Early Social Thought..... | 45 |

PART II: THE CLASSICAL TRIUMVIRATE

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4. Karl Marx: Philosophy and Methodology | 71 |
| 5. Karl Marx: Theory of History | 95 |
| 6. Karl Marx: Economics of Capitalism | 125 |
| 7. Émile Durkheim: The Division of Labour in Society | 149 |
| 8. Émile Durkheim: The Rules of Sociological Method and On Suicide | 171 |
| 9. Émile Durkheim: Religion and Education..... | 193 |
| 10. Max Weber: Methodology..... | 213 |
| 11. Max Weber: Capitalism and Modernity | 235 |
| 12. Max Weber: Social Classes and Legitimate Domination | 255 |

PART III: EXPANDING THE CANON

| | |
|--|-----|
| 13. Gender and Social Theory | 277 |
| 14. W.E.B. Du Bois on Race | 301 |
| 15. G.H. Mead on Self and Society..... | 323 |

PART IV: CLASSICAL SOCIAL THEORY TODAY

| | |
|--|-----|
| 16. Concluding Thoughts on the Classical Canon | 351 |
| Further Reading and Sources | 381 |
| Credits | 389 |
| Index | 391 |