CONTENTS

List of Contributors viii
Preface xiii
Rubén Jarazo-Álvarez xix
Acknowledgements xx
Note on the Text

PART I
Wizarding (Bio)Politics and Intersected Discourses 1

1 The Chosen One(s): Ethnic Election and Contemporary English National Identity in J.K. Rowling’s Harry Potter Series
Chellyce Birch 5

2 Squibs, Disability and Having a Place at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry
Maureen Saraco 18

3 A Magic Manic Pixie Dream Girl?: Luna Lovegood and the Concept of Postfeminism
Maria Nilson 32

4 “Like an Old Tale”: Art and Transformation in the Harry Potter Novels and The Winter’s Tale
Mary Villeponteaux 42
PART II
Death Culture, Trauma and Anxiety

5 Death Sells: Relatable Death in the Harry Potter Novels
Breanna Mroczek

6 The Last Enemy: Harry Potter and Western Anxiety about Death
Christina Hitchcock

7 “A Story About How Humans Are Frightened of Death”: Harry Potter, Death and the Cultural Imagination
Anna Mackenzie

8 Arthur, Harry and the Late Mother: From T.H. White to J.K. Rowling
Justine Breton

9 King’s Cross: Harry Potter and the Transformative Power of Pain and Suffering
Anne Frances N. Sangil

10 When Spares Are Spared: Innocent Bystanders and Survivor’s Guilt in Harry Potter and the Cursed Child
Jessica Seymour

11 Death Culture, Literary References and Postmodern Sacred Elements in Harry Potter as a Transmedia Franchise
Maria Isabel Escalas-Ruiz

12 Death and How to Deal with It in the Harry Potter Series
Pilar Alderete-Diez

PART III
Trauma, the Politics of Fear and Postmodern Transformations

13 Al-Qa’ida and the Horcruxes: Quests for Immortality by Violent Extremist Organizations and Lord Voldemort
Neil D. Shortland and John Anthony Dunne

14 Gender, Sexuality and the War on Terror in Harry Potter and Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them
Rubén Jarazo-Álvarez
15 Magic as Technological Utopia?: Unpacking Issues of Interactivity and Infrastructuring in the Potterverse 193
Luigina Ciolfi

16 Flirting with Posthuman Technologies in Harry Potter: Overconsumption of a Good Thing – Technology as Magic 207
Maryann Nguyen

Index 220