

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
List of Music Examples	xi
List of Contributors	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii
About the Cover	xix

Introduction	1
Tina Frühauf

Part I. Time and the (Post)Modern

1 Music and Postmodern Time	17
Lawrence Kramer
2 'Aesthetic Indigestion': Alfred Schnittke, Anachronism, and the Contemporary Cadenza's Musical Pasts	37
Joshua S. Walden
3 John Adams's Post-stylistic Approach to the Past: A Response to the Uncertain Future of a Globalized World?	55
Max Noubel

Part II. Manifestations of History

4 Germany, Post Modernism, and the Sphericity of Time	75
Laurenz Lüttken
5 Visions of the 'End of History', '1968', and the Emergence of 'Postmoderne Musik' in West Germany	91
Beate Kutschke

Part III. Receptions of the Past

6 (Neo-)Schenkerism and the Past: Recovering a Plurality of Critical Contexts	119
John Koslowsky

7	From Bach to Neruda: Historicity and Heterogeneous Temporality in the Chilean Cantata (1941–1969) Daniela Fugellie	138
8	Time Re-Covered: Double Temporality in Olga Neuwirth's Hommage à Klaus Nomi Georg Burgstaller	168
Part IV. Nostalgias and the Temporalities of Belonging
9	The Past Is Home: Eduardo Martínez Torner in Postwar London; An Exile's Nostalgia for Spanish Musicology Susana Asensio Llamas	195
10	Historical Nostalgia, Nature, and the Future in Three Iconic Albums from 1971: Aqualung , Who's Next , and Led Zeppelin IV Caitlin Vaughn Carlos	225
11	Indie Neofado's Temporality: A Tale of Two Nostalgias Michael Arnold	249
	Bibliography	273
	Index	297