

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: There's an Elephant in the Room and It's Not Leaving: Engaging Discussions about Race, Racism and Race Relations Janice D. Hamlet	1
1 The Story of Right Hand, Left Hand: The Rhetoric of Racial Angst in Spike Lee's Do the Right Thing Raymond Blanton	11
2 The Spice of Life: Discussing Diversity and Disparity in Mississippi Masala Rekha Sharma and Tewodros Workneh	29
3 The Ties that (Un)Bind: Whiteness and the Racialization of Jewish Bodies in the Film School Ties Gordon Alley-Young	47
4 Smoke Signals : Opening the Conversation to Untold Stories from the First Americans Gregory Adamo	65
5 "White-Side, Strong-Side": A Critical Examination of Race and Leadership in Remember the Titans Gregory A. Cranmer and Tina M. Harris	77
6 The Difficult Dialog of Critical Race Theory through the Lens of Crash Sheryl Lidzy	95
7 No Filter: Counter-Storytelling and The Help Debra C. Smith and J. Joy Davis	107

8	Fruitvale Station: A Humanistic and Vulnerable Glimpse into Black Masculinity David Stamps	117
9	Zootopia: Using a Utopia to Facilitate Conversations about a Dystopia in the Society Vinod Kumar and P. Sudheer Kumar	137
10	Gook and the Conversation Within Shearon Roberts	151
11	Theft and White Supremacy: Cultural Implications of Mudbound Christopher K. Jackson and Renata Ferdinand	167
12	De-essentializing Race through Dialectic Analysis of The Big Sick Joshua F. Hoops	181
13	Wakanda's Prodigal Son: A CRT Analysis of the Relationship between Africans and African-Americans as Represented in Black Panther Shamilla Amulega and Taryn K. Myers	195
	Conclusion: Ways to Engage the Elephant in the Room Janice D. Hamlet	209
	Index	217
	About the Editor	227
	About the Contributors	229