
Contents

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction to the Research Handbook on Political Partisanship Henrik Oscarsson and Sören Holmberg	1
2 Party identification: down but not out Sören Holmberg and Henrik Oscarsson	14
PART I POLITICAL PARTISANSHIP AND DEMOCRACY
3 Party government and democracy Jacques Thomassen	31
4 Partisanship: conceptualizations and consequences Lisa Madeleine Carius-Munz	47
5 Media and political partisanship Adam Shehata and Jesper Strömbäck	60
6 The blinders of partisanship Russell J. Dalton	74
7 The origins and effect of negative partisanship Alexa Bankert	89
PART II MEASURING POLITICAL PARTISANSHIP
8 Measuring the direction and strength of partisan identity Leonie Huddy, Caitlin Davies and Joseph Sandor	103
9 Measuring party attachments with survey questionnaires Martin Rosema and Sabrina J. Mayer	123
10 Measuring elite–mass linkages through the Internet Florence Ecormier-Nocca and Nicolas Sauger	141
11 Partisan ambivalence in multi-party systems Marco R. Steenbergen	154
PART III ORIGINS AND DETERMINANTS OF POLITICAL PARTISANSHIP
12 Party identification and its evolution over time Eva H. Önnudóttir and Ólafur Þ. Harðarson	167

13	The formative period of party identification Martin Kroh	177
14	The populist right-wing partisan Anders Widfeldt	190
15	The role of political parties in partisanship Carlos Shenga	202
16	Partisanship in the digital age Rachel K. Gibson and Stephen Ward	211
17	Party identification: resilience under strain Elisabeth Gidengil and Neil Nevitte	225
18	Partisanship and ideology in Japan Masahiro Yamada	236

PART IV POLITICAL EFFECTS OF PARTISANSHIP

19	Does a partisan public increase democratic stability? John H. Aldrich, Austin Bussing, Arvind Krishnamurthy, Nicolas Madan, Katelyn Mehling Ice, Kristen M. Renberg and Hannah M. Ridge	256
20	Partisanship and political participation Ian McAllister	266
21	Attitudinal consequences of partisanship for new parties Eva Anduiza and Roberto Pannico	281
22	Partisan bias in economic perceptions Lie Philip Santoso	294
23	Partisanship in the process of party choice Mark N. Franklin and Georg Lutz	308
24	Partisanship, policy-making and democracy Spyros Kosmidis	328
25	Beyond party identification Eric Guntermann	335
26	Partisanship and citizen deliberation Kimmo Grönlund	349
27	Partisanship and political trust Marc Hooghe	358
28	The consequences of partisanship in Africa Robert Mattes and Matthias Krönke	368

Index	381
--------------	-----