

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Map of the Middle East	xi
 Introduction	 1
1 Etic Concepts and Emic Terms	9
2 The State of the Art	17
 PART ONE A Sacred Place: The Shrine of al-Husayn's Head
Introduction	27
3 From Karbala to Damascus: A Relic with Multiple Shrines	29
4 The Commemoration of al-Husayn in Fatimid Ascalon	42
5 Excursus: Donations to Mosques and Shrines	55
6 Why Ascalon? Christian Martyrs and Muslim Murābiṭūn (Defenders)	61
7 Excursus: Medieval Pilgrimage – Victor Turner's Input	70
8 From Ascalon to Cairo: The Duplication of Sacred Space	73
9 Excursus: Arabic Treatises in Praise of Ascalon	85
10 The Shrine in Cairo under the Sunni Ayyubids and Mamluks	87
11 Excursus: al-Husayn and Saladin in Palestinian Lore	97

12	The Shrine in Ascalon under the Ayyubids and Mamluks	101
13	Excursus: Ibn Taymiyya on the Veneration of the Head of al-Husayn	112
14	Summary	119
PART TWO A Sacred Time: The Month of Rajab
	Introduction	127
15	Rajab in Pre-Islamic Arabia and in Early Islam	134
16	Excursus: The Founding of an Islamic Lunar Calendar	151
17	Rajab under Fatimid Rule	154
18	Excursus: Istighfār (Seeking Divine Forgiveness)	179
19	Rajab under the Ayyubids and Mamluks	182
20	Excursus: Arabic Treatises in Praise of the Sacred Months	218
21	Summary	221
	Final Comments: Spacial and Temporal Sanctity	227
	Works Cited	235
	Index	265