

Contents

List of Contributors	page viii
Acknowledgements	x
1 Introduction: The History of New York Literature Ross Wilson	1
PART I ADAPTATION AND ADJUSTMENT	17
2 Changing Culture: The Contribution of European Immigrants to New York City Literature, 1870–1940 Martino Marazzi	19
3 Agitators and Intellectuals: Radical Jewish Storytellers Catherine Morley	31
4 The Mirror of the West: Arab American Literature in Early Twentieth-Century New York City Raphael Cormack	46
5 Writing the Big Apple in Chinese and Chinese American Literature Pin-chia Feng	61
PART II INNOVATION AND INSPIRATION	77
6 Sharing Social Space: New York as a City of the Housed and Unhoused Dorothea Löbbermann	79
7 Health Reform in the Mid-Nineteenth-Century New York Periodical Press David Dowling	94

8	Neoliberal New York: Contemporary Literature and the Politics of Urban Redevelopment Catalina Neculai	107
9	The Marvellous and the Mundane: Ekphrastic New York Novels Monika Gehlawat	123
PART III IDENTITY AND PLACE		137
10	Growing Up in Manhattan: Children's Literature and New York City Pádraic Whyte	139
11	Wartime Reading in the City, 1914–1918 Ross Wilson	152
12	The Periodical and the Flâneur in Early New York Writing Peter Ferry	165
13	Multiple Voices: New York City Poetry Rona Cran	180
14	The New York School? Towards a Definition Yasmine Shamma	194
PART IV TRAGEDY AND HOPE		213
15	The Spatial Drama of Hope and Desire in Contemporary New York City Literature Bart Eeckhout	215
16	New and Old Amsterdam in Twenty-First Century Fiction: The Goldfinch (2013), Netherland (2008) and Open City (2011) Maria Lauret	227
17	Beats, Black Culture and Bohemianism in Mid-Twentieth-Century New York City Douglas Field	240
18	'The Sixth Borough': Imagining New York after 9/11 Birgit Däwes	252

Contents

vii

19	Walking the City: An Experience of New York in American Fiction Nathalie Cochoy	265
20	Afterword Lisa Keller	285
	Bibliography	296
	Index	322