

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction / Marina Dahlquist and Joel Frykholm	1
1 Platforms for Learning / Jan Olsson	17
2 The Kinoreformbewegung in Germany: Creating an Infrastructure for Pedagogical Screenings / Sabine Lenk and Frank Kessler	36
3 One Family: The Movement of Educational Film in Britain and Its Empire / Tom Rice	55
4 Far and Close: The Gemeentelijke Schoolbioscoop in Rotterdam / Floris Paalman	80
5 Partners in Screen Education: Philanthropic Organizations and the Film Industry / Marina Dahlquist	107
6 The Best Teachers and the Best Preachers: Film, University Extension, and the Project of Assimilation in Alberta, 1917–36 / Zoë Druick	123
7 “A Casual Glance Reveals a Perfect Mine of Treasures”: George Kleine’s Catalogue of Educational Motion Pictures (1910) / Oliver Gaycken	147
8 George Kleine and the Institutional Film Exchange: An Experiment in Nontheatrical Film Distribution, 1921–29 / Joel Frykholm	164
9 Ford Films and Ford Viewers: Examining “Nontheatrical” Films in the Theaters and Beyond / Katy Peplin	201
10 Institutionalizing Educational Cinema in the United States during the Early 1920s / Gregory A. Waller	220
Index	251