CONTENTS

1  Introduction: Diversity and Decolonization in German Studies
   Regine Criser and Ervin Malakaj
   1

2  Accounting for Our Settler Colonialism: Toward an Unsettled German Studies in the United States
   Ashwin Manthripragada and Emina Mušanović
   23

3  Habits of Mind, Habits of Heart: Cultivating Humanity Through a Decolonized German Studies Curriculum
   Amanda Randall
   41

4  Social Justice in the Language Curriculum: Interrogating the Goals and Outcomes of Language Education in College
   Magda Tarnawska Senel
   63

5  Decolonizing German Studies While Dissecting Race in the American Classroom
   Priscilla Layne
   83
6 Documents of Colonialism and Racial Theorizing in the German Classroom
Evan Torner

7 Decolonizing the Mental Lexicon: Critical Whiteness Studies Perspectives in the Language Classroom
Maureen Gallagher and Christin Zenker

8 A Developmental Model of Intercultural Competence: Scaffolding the Shift from Culture-Specific to Culture-General
Beate Brunow and Britton Newman

9 Study Abroad Otherwise
Janice McGregor

10 A Question of Inclusion: Intercultural Competence, Systematic Racism, and the North American German Classroom
Adrienne Merritt

11 Supporting Graduate Students of Color in German Studies: A Syllabus
Brenna Reinhart Byrd

12 Digital Media Network Projects: Classroom Inclusivity Through a Symphilosophical Approach
Renata Fuchs

13 Disrupting the Norm: Disability, Access, and Inclusion in the German Language Classroom
Petra Watzke

14 Multidirectional Memory as Decolonial Pedagogical Practice in German Studies
Lauren Hansen
15 "Please Don't Gender Me!" Strategies for Inclusive Language Instruction in a Gender-Diverse Campus Community
   Angineh Djavadghazaryans 269

16 Intersectionality and Notions of Diversity in the Internationalized German Studies Program at the University of Melbourne
   Daniela Müller 289

17 Dear Incoming Graduate Student Colleague
   David Gramling 309

Appendix A: Developmental Model of Intercultural Competence 327

Appendix B 333

Appendix C: Meine Identität 335

Appendix D: Word Painting 339

Appendix E: Maureen Gallagher and Christin Zenker 343

Appendix F: Priscilla Layne 351

Index 363