

Contents

---

Acknowledgments	viii
List of Abbreviations	xi
Introduction. The Problem: Paths Out of the War	1
Part I. Forms of Consciousness and Prospects for Experience before 1945	45
Chapter 1. Heroic Images of War in the Age of Wars	47
Chapter 2. Shared Prospects for Experience in Total War	58
Chapter 3. The End of the War on the Horizon of Expectation, 1944–1945	72
Part II. A Criminal War?	95
Chapter 4. The Postwar Period as a Backdrop for Experience	97
Chapter 5. Demilitarization as an Allied Political Program	107
Chapter 6. Representation as a Legal Issue: The Military Leadership on Trial, 1945–1946	129
Chapter 7. Conflicting Ideas: The Wehrmacht between Elucidation and Myth	162
Chapter 8. Provisional Assessment	192

Part III. Veterans—An Experiential Community of “Victims”?	199
Chapter 9. Self-Organization among Former Soldiers	207
Chapter 10. Internal and External Perceptions of Veterans: Victims and Achievers	219
Chapter 11. The Presence of the Absent: The Symbolic Representation and the Political Instrumentalization of Prisoners of War	240
Chapter 12. Experience versus Expectation: Consumption Critique and War Captivity	255
Chapter 13. Remembering the Fallen: Historical Signification between Commemorative Ceremony and Grave Care	267
Part IV. Competing Interpretations and Conferring Meaning: War Stories of “Others”	279
Chapter 14. The Military Resistance: Fostering Tradition as a Political Act and Biographical Challenge	281
Chapter 15. Defectors, Deserters, War Criminals: Mirroring Self-Images	302
Chapter 16. The Führer Abroad: Defense by Demarcation	319
Chapter 17. Traitors, Spies, and Other “Loners”: The War’s Trivialization in the Media	336
Chapter 18. Provisional Assessment	346
Part V. Historically Armed: Images of War and Soldiers in Military Leadership Philosophy and Political Public Relations Work	351
Chapter 19. Military Self-Understanding between the “Old” and “New” Wehrmacht	359
Chapter 20. The Adenauer Government’s Efforts at Integration in the Pre-political Realm	371
Chapter 21. Moral Rearmament: The Party Soldiers of the Free Democratic Party	388
Chapter 22. The Political Functionality of “Wartime Experience” in the Cold War	410

Chapter 23. Remilitarization as a Field of Tension in Collective Representations	425
Chapter 24. Provisional Assessment	443
Conclusion. A Prospective View and Summary	446
Bibliography	485
Index	537