

Table of contents

Presentation: Discourses on death and dying Vicent Salvador, Adéla Kořátková and Ignasi Clemente	1
Section I. Three disciplinary approaches to the subject of death
Death: From myth to the laboratory Josep L. Barona	11
Moral orthothanasia and the right to die: A multinarrative approach Fernando Lolas Stepke	23
In the wake of loss: Grief, mourning and bereavement Beatriz Gil-Juliá and Rafael Ballester-Arnal	35
Section II. Discourse analysis in health settings
The gift of continuing to live in the body of someone else: The discourse on organ transplants in Spanish press Antonio M. Bañón Hernández	49
Giving meaning to illness and death: End-of-life approaches in online stories by adolescents and young adults with cancer Martí Domínguez and Lucía Sapiña	67
Religion, collusion, and “fighting”: Pediatric cancer end-of-life discourses in Catalonia, Spain Ignasi Clemente	85
Rhetoric of death in clinical case reports and clinical tales Adéla Kořátková	97
Section III. Death in literary texts
‘Letters to Lucilius’ and death: A self-help book written by Seneca David Pujante	113
Montaigne, the essay and the end of life John Skelton	125

Memory, mothers and post-Freudian melancholia in Mercè Rodoreda's 'Night and Fog' Montserrat Lunati i Maruny	147
The scenography of death in contemporary poetry: The case of Vicent Andrés Estellés Vicent Salvador and Irene Mira	167
Beyond the limits of death: Consciousness without bodies and simulacra of human beings in Science Fiction Sara Molpeceres	179
Index	195