

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
Introduction: Michalson Research	1
Chapter One: Michalson's Life and Work	17
Historical Setting	17
Systematic Principle:	40
Michalson's Nature/History Distinction and its Importance to his Understanding of Responsibility in the World
Chapter Two: Responsibility in the Thought of Carl Michalson	53
The Prominence of Responsibility in Michalson's Thought	53
Responsibility in the Context of Michalson's Historical and Theological Development	58
Responsibility in a Soteriological Context	93
Ethical Implications of Responsibility in Michalson's Thought	105
Chapter Three: Ethics in Carl Michalson: Theory, Substance and Application	111
Ethics of Responsibility: Theory and Substance	111
Ethics of Responsibility: Application	139
Chapter Four: Ethics in Carl Michalson: Evaluation	145
Character of Michalson's Ethics	145
Adequacy of Michalson's Ethics	151
Chapter Five: Ethics in Carl Michalson: Summary (A Michalsonian Model for Theological Ethics)	163
Michalson's Understanding of Good and Evil: (The Object of Faith)	166
The Means for Bringing About the Good and Combatting Evil: (The Faith in Action Through Preaching)	169
The Good that is Realized by Responsible Faith: (The Telos of Preaching)	173
Chapter Six: The Implications of Carl Michalson's Ethics for More Recent Christian Ethics	179
Ethics of Responsibility and Liberation Theology as a Source of Ethics	180
Ethics of Responsibility and Rejection of Accommodation to the World (Evangelical Perfectionism)	204
Ethics of Responsibility and Ethics of Character and Virtue	220

Chapter Seven: Conclusion	237
Michalson's Concept of Responsibility:
The Influence of H. Richard Niebuhr and
Friedric Gogarten	237
Michalson's Ethics: Preaching Engaging the World	241
Michalson's Ethics: Command and Context;
Character and Virtue	242
Michalson's Contribution: The Possibility of
Ethics in a New Key	243
Appendix A: Focus on a Revolution	253
Bibliography	257