

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
List of Contributors	xiii
1 Introduction: Socio-Legal Perspectives on Human Rights in the National Context Patrick Schmidt and Simon Halliday	1
2 Implementing Human Rights Denis Galligan and Deborah Sandler	23
3 France, the UK, and the 'Boomerang' of the Internationalisation of Human Rights (1945–2000) Mikael Rask Madsen	57
4 'We've Had To Raise Our Game': Liberty's Litigation Strategy Under The Human Rights Act 1998 Richard J Maiman	87
5 Implementing the Human Rights Act into the Courts in England and Wales: Culture Shift or Damp Squib? John Raine and Clive Walker	111
6 The Effectiveness of National Human Rights Institutions Stephen Livingstone and Rachel Murray	137
7 When Do Rights Matter? A Case Study of the Right to Equal Treatment in Sweden Reza Banakar	165
8 Human Rights and French Criminal Justice: Opening the Door to Pre-Trial Defence Rights Jacqueline Hodgson	185
9 The Millennium Blip: The Human Rights Act 1998 and Local Government Luke Clements and Rachel Morris	209
10 Empowering Children? Legal Understandings and Experiences of Rights in the Scottish Children's Hearings System Anne Griffiths and Randy Frances Kandel	231
Bibliography	257
Index	275