

CONTENTS

Introduction to the Omnibus	xi
-----------------------------	----

Caste, Class and Power
Changing Patterns of Stratification in a Tanjore Village
SECOND EDITION

I. Introduction	1
II. The Village: Its Physical Structure	19
III. The Caste Structure	45
IV. Economic Organisation and Social Class	102
V. The Distribution of Power	141
VI. Conclusion: Caste, Class and Power	185
References	226
Epilogue: Village Studies in Retrospect	231
Appendix I: The Social Organisation of Temples	252
Appendix II: The Tribulations of Field Work	271
Index	287

The Idea of Natural Inequality and Other Essays

SECOND EDITION

Acknowledgements	xiii
Introduction	1
The Idea of Natural Inequality	7
Homo Hierarchicus, Homo Equalis	35
Harmonic and Disharmonic Social Systems	57
The Backward Classes and the New Social Order	83
The Pursuit of Equality and the Indian University	130
Equality of Opportunity	168
Individualism and the Persistence of Collective Identities	198
Equality of Opportunity and the Equal Distribution of Benefits	227
Index	249

Equality and Universality

Essays in Social and Political Theory

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
1. Equality and Inequality	6
2. Class and Status	37
3. Varna and Jati	59
4. Caste in Contemporary India	70

5. The Public as a Social Category	95
6. Distributive Justice and Institutional Well-being	112
7. The Reproduction of Inequality	136
8. The Antinomies of Equality	164
9. Hierarchical and Competitive Inequality	181
10. Equality and Universality	204
Appendix I: Amartya Sen's Utopia	222
Appendix II: Equality and Individual Achievement	234
References	247
Name Index	259
Subject Index	263