

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
1. Of Law, Virtue and Justice – An Introduction Amalia Amaya and Ho Hock Lai	1
I. Law, Virtue and Legal Reasoning
2. Practical Wisdom in Legal Decision-Making Claudio Michelon	29
3. The Role of Virtue in Legal Justification Amalia Amaya	51
4. Education and Paternalism: Plato on Virtue and the Law Sandrine Berges	67
II. Law, Virtue and Character
5. Neoclassical Public Virtues: Towards an Aretaic Theory of Law-Making (and Law Teaching) Sherman J Clark	81
6. Confucian Virtue Jurisprudence Linghao Wang and Lawrence B Solum	105
7. The Three Stages of Judges' Self-Development Mateusz Stepień	137
III. Virtue Theory and Criminal Law
8. Motivating Intentions, Reciprocal Specification of Ends and the Assessment of Responsibility Kyron Huigens	155
9. Liberal Virtue Ekow N Yankah	169
10. Virtue, Vice and the Criminal Law – A Response to Huigens and Yankah RA Duff	195

IV. Legal Fact-Finding: Aretaic Perspectives

11. Virtues of Truthfulness in Forbearing Wrongs: Client Confidentiality
Qualified by Legal Symmetry of Past and Future Harm 217
Hendrik Kaptein
12. Virtuous Deliberation on the Criminal Verdict 241
Ho Hock Lai
13. Must Virtue be Particular? 265
Frederick Schauer

V. Law, Empathy and Justice

14. Empathy, Law and Justice 279
Michael Slote
15. Empathy in Law (A Response to Slote) 293
John Deigh
16. On Empathy as a Necessary, but Not Sufficient, Foundation for Justice
(A Response to Slote) 303
Susan J Brison
17. Reply to Deigh and Brison 311
Michael Slote
- Index* 315