

Contents

Part I Civil Law Versus Common Law

- 1 Never the Twain Shall Meet? 3
Kai Purnhagen
- 2 To What Extent Is the Opposition Between Civil Law and Common Law Relevant for Law and Economics? 23
Régis Lanneau
- 3 Comparative Study of Legal Reasoning in Swiss and UK Courts..... 47
Lynn Watkins

Part II Economic and Legal Thinking

- 4 Homo Economicus Versus Homo Iuridicus 69
Mariusz J. Golecki
- 5 Three Realistic Strategies for Explaining and Predicting
Judicial Decisions 93
Diego Moreno-Cruz
- 6 Some Thoughts on Economic Reasoning in Appellate Courts and Legal Scholarship 125
Endre Stavang
- 7 Cultures of Administrative Law in Europe: From Weberian Bureaucracy to ‘Law and Economics’ 149
Klaus Mathis

Part III The Limits of Legal Transplants

- 8 The “Hand Rule” as a Standard of Care in Swiss Tort Law? 177
Balz Hammer and Sandra Duss

9	Efficiency and Swiss Contract Law	207
	Ariane Morin
10	Class Action Lawsuits in Europe: A Comparative and Economic Analysis	231
	Ricardo Dawidowicz
11	Crown Witnesses in Switzerland?	253
	Zinon Koumbarakis
 Part IV Economic Analysis in EU Law
12	The Case for a Principled Approach to Law and Economics: Efficiency Analysis and General Principles of EU Law	275
	Aurélien Portuese
13	Homo Economicus, Behavioural Sciences, and Economic Regulation: On the Concept of Man in Internal Market Regulation and its Normative Basis	329
	Jens-Uwe Franck and Kai Purnhagen
14	Economic Principles in Antitrust Law in the Aftermath of the More Economic Approach	367
	Claudia Seitz
	About the Authors	389
	Index	393