

Contents

Acknowledgements vii

Preface ix

1 Manifestos 1

PART I: THE PREDICAMENT OF 'HIGH CULTURE' TODAY

2 Where Are the Arts Going? 9

3 A Century of Cultural Symbiosis? 20

4 Why Hold Festivals in the Twenty-First
Century? 34

5 Politics and Culture in the New Century 43

PART II: THE CULTURE OF THE BOURGEOIS WORLD

6 Enlightenment and Achievement: The
Emancipation of Jewish Talent since 1800 61

7 The Jews and Germany 77

8	Mitteleuropean Destinies	84
9	Culture and Gender in European Bourgeois Society 1870–1914	96
10	Art Nouveau	116
11	The Last Days of Mankind	130
12	Heritage	143

PART III: UNCERTAINTIES, SCIENCE, RELIGION

13	Worrying About the Future	159
14	Science: Social Function and World Change	169
15	Mandarin in a Phrygian Cap: Joseph Needham	184
16	The Intellectuals: Role, Function and Paradox	194
17	The Prospect of Public Religion	204
18	Art and Revolution	224
19	Art and Power	230
20	The Avant-Garde Fails	241

PART IV: FROM ART TO MYTH

21	Pop Goes the Artist: Our Exploding Culture	261
22	The American Cowboy: An International Myth?	272
	Notes	291
	Dates and Sources of Original Publication	301
	Index	304