

Contents

Notes on Contributors

vii

1	Introduction: What Makes Magic Everyday Magic? Kathryn A. Edwards	1
2	Magical Lives: Daily Practices and Intellectual Discourses in Enchanted Catalonia during the Early Modern Era Doris Moreno Martínez	11
3	Lived Lutheranism and Daily Magic in Seventeenth-Century Finland Raisa Maria Toivo	35
4	The Guardian Angel: From the Natural to the Supernatural Antoine Mazurek	51
5	False Sanctity and Spiritual Imposture in Seventeenth-Century French Convents Linda Lierheimer	71
6	Magic, Dreams, and Money Jared Poley	93
7	The Good Magicians: Treasure Hunting in Early Modern Germany Johannes Dillinger	105
8	A Christian Warning: Bartholomaeus Anhorn, Demonology, and Divination Jason Coy	127
9	The “Antidemons” of Calvinism: Ghosts, Demons, and Traditional Belief in the House of François Perrault Kathryn A. Edwards	147

10	The Constitution and Conditions of Everyday Magic in Late Medieval and Early Modern Catholic Europe Sarah Ferber	161
	Index	181