

Contents

Preface	vi
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction: The Dutch East India Company and the Rhythm of Life in Japan	1
1 Gift-Giving and the Early Modern Web of Diplomacy	19
2 Horses and Camels and Birds of Paradise, Oh My: Exotic Animals as Gifts	37
3 Most Exquisite Curiosities of Nature and Art	55
4 Rarities and Curiosos: Scientific Paraphernalia as Gifts	77
5 A Taste of the Exotic: Food and Drink as Social Lubricant in Early Modern Japanese-Dutch Interactions	97
Epilogue: Gifts and the Coming of the Americans	115
Notes	123
Bibliography	153
Index	166