Contents

1. Introduction .................................................. 1
   Jean-Michel Bonvin and Daniel Stoecklin

   Mario Biggeri and Ravi Baraldi and Vittorio Iervese

3. Observing Children’s Capabilities as Agency ................. 43
   Claudio Baraldi and Vittorio Iervese

4. From Evolving Capacities to Evolving Capabilities: Contextualizing Children’s Rights .............................................. 67
   Manfred Liebel

   Sabine Andresen and Katharina Gerarts

6. Children’s Councils Implementation: A Path Toward Recognition? .............................................................. 109
   Dominique Golay and Dominique Malatesta

7. Cross-Fertilizing Children’s Rights and the Capability Approach. The Example of the Right to Be Heard in Organized Leisure .............................................. 131
   Daniel Stoecklin and Jean-Michel Bonvin

8. The Theoretical Orthodoxy of Children’s and Youth Agency and Its Contradictions: Moving from Normative Thresholds to a Situated Assessment of Children’s and Youth Lives .............................................. 153
   Stephan Dahmen
Contents

9  Children’s Rights and the Capability Approach:
Discussing Children’s Agency Against the Horizon of the Institutionalised Youth Land
Didier Reynaert and Rudi Roose

10  The Participation of Children in Care in the Assessment Process
Pierrine Robin

11  The UN Children’s Rights Convention and the Capabilities
Approach – Family Duties and Children’s Rights in Tension
Zoë Clark and Holger Ziegler

12  Children’s Rights Between Normative and Empirical Realms
Karl Hanson, Michele Poretti, and Frédéric Darbellay

13  Growing Up in Contexts of Vulnerability: The Challenges in Changing Paradigms and Practices for Children’s and Adolescents’ Rights in Brazil and Mexico
Irene Rizzini and Danielle Strickland

Conclusion
Daniel Stoecklin and Jean-Michel Bonvin

Index