

Contents

OVERVIEW

Changing today's consumption patterns—for tomorrow's human development 1

CHAPTER ONE

The state of human development 16

Wider recognition of human development 16

100 countries with national human development reports 17

Progress and setbacks in human development 19

What does this year's HDI reveal? 19

Human poverty and deprivation 25

Persisting disparities 29

Reversibility of human development 34

Facing the challenge 37

CHAPTER TWO

Consumption from a human development perspective 38

Concepts of consumption 38

Factors affecting consumption options 40

Consumption and the links with human development 43

CHAPTER THREE

Consumption in a global village—unequal and unbalanced 46

Consumption shortfalls and poverty 47

Rising consumption puts stress on the environment 54

Impacts of consumption on society 58

Impacts on consumer health—consumer rights to product safety and information 61

Information imbalances 62

CHAPTER FOUR

Unequal human impacts of environmental damage 66

Local environmental damage hurts poor people most 67

International environmental problems are also a burden for the poor 77

Human impacts of environmental damage—a summary 79

The future need not be gloomy	79
Technology is crucial	82
Policy issues	83

CHAPTER FIVE

Agenda for action	86
Challenges ahead	86
Consumption policy—agenda for action	86
Alliances for a new vision	100

Technical note	107
-----------------------	------------

References	112
-------------------	------------

HUMAN DEVELOPMENT INDICATORS	119
-------------------------------------	------------
