

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Situating Domestic Politics in South Asia	1
Arjun Guneratne and Anita M. Weiss
South Asia as a Political-Cultural Site	4
The Organization of the Book	9
Efforts to Promote Regional Cooperation	16
1 The Colonial Legacy	21
Shabnum Tejani
Imperial Conquest	21
The Early Colonial State	28
Mutiny and Rebellion	32
High Noon of Colonialism, 1858–1914	34
Cultural Reform and Political Change under the Raj, 1800–1900	44
Nationalism	59
Independence and Partition, 1937–1948	75
2 India	105
Christophe Jaffrelot
Political History since Independence	105
Political Economy	134
Identity Politics	142
Women's Power and Kinship Networks in Political Life
(by Virginie Dutoya)	147
The Social Cost of Militarism (by Isabelle Saint-Mezard)	153
Struggles over Rights: A Case Study	157

3	Pakistan	169
	Anita M. Weiss
	Political History since Independence	173
	Political Economy	191
	Identity Politics	196
	Women's Power and Kinship Networks in Political Life	207
	Social Costs of Militarism	216
	Struggles over Rights: Case Study of the Tehrik-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) in Swat	218
4	Sri Lanka	227
	Arjun Guneratne
	Political History since Independence	230
	Political Economy	254
	Identity Politics	264
	Women's Power and Kinship Networks in Political Life	268
	Social Costs of Militarism	271
	Struggles over Rights: The Women's Movement in Sri Lanka (by Camena Guneratne)	274
5	Nepal	283
	Pratyoush Onta and Seira Tamang
	Political History	283
	Political Economy	314
	Identity Politics	322
	Women's Power and Kinship Networks in Political Life	327
	Social Costs of Militarism	330
	Struggles over Rights: The 2007 Madhes Rebellion	332
6	Bangladesh	345
	Haroun er Rashid
	Political History	345
	Major Political Parties	371
	Political Economy	377
	Identity Politics	382
	Women's Power and Kinship Networks in Political Life	385
	Social Costs of Militarism	390
	Struggles over Rights: The Nagorik Committee Initiative	393
	Index	407
	About the Contributors	417